SOME MARINE DISASTERS.

A Schooner's Rough Experience on the Atlantic.

CREW BADLY FROST-BITTEN.

The Schooner Laura A. Sprague, Capt. Wixon, Towed to Norfolk. Her Crew Suffered Intensely. Ship Disabled.

The schooner Laura L. Sprague, Captain Wixon, was towed to this harbor Sunday after a rough experience of two weeks at sea. She left Newport News with a cargo of coal for Lynn, Mass., and put to sea on the 4th with a good westerly wind. On the night of the 7th, when off Shinnecock, she took a heavy northeast gale, which carried away the flying jib, foresail, spunkier and forestaysail. The foreboom was broken and the bobstay carried away. All hands on board were more or less frost-bitten.

The schooner Henry L. Peckham, Capt. Harding, from Baltimore February 5th, for Boston, was Sunday morning towed from Hampton Roads to Lambert's Point by the tug Atkins Hughes, to get clear of the ice.

The Norfolk and Washington steamers resumed their regular trips yesterday, leaving on time.

The tug Protector, Capt. Minford, and the tug Thomas G. Smith, Capt.
Mitchell, which assisted in the work of floating the German tank steamer Elsie Marie, have gone to Delaware Breakwater.

The schooner C. O. Lane, which has been aground on Hampton bar, has been floated and towed to Lambert's Point.

The tugs Carolina and Spring Garden, both with tows, bound South, are ice bound at North Landing.

The shaft of the tug Belle Virginia is broken and she is waiting an opportunity to go on the ways to have a new one put in.

The Norfolk and Western tug No.
1, with barge No. 6, and Norfolk and Western tug No. 2, with barge No. 4, left Lambert's Point Sunday for New Haven. When near the Thimble barge No. 4 was cut through by the ice and both tugs towed her back to the piers. Yesterday morning she was towed up the harbor for repairs. The hole made by the ice is almost a foot in length and six inches in width.

Obsequies.

The funeral of Mr. James O.
Whitehurst took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his residence on Charlotte street, and was attended by a delegation of Odd Fellows. The services were conducted by Rev. E. H. Rawlins, of Centenary Church, assisted by Dr.
Tudor. The burial was in Cedar Grove.

The pallbearers were W. F. Allen, D. B. Dunbar, Robert Stephens, Wesley Davis, E. E. Whitehurst, C.
W. Fentress and D. B. Harden.

Rev. E. B. Hatcher preached the funeral of Mrs. Mary Hodges, wife of Mr. Samuel Hodges, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence on Bute street. The interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

NORFOLK COUNTY.

Some Assertions as to the Standing and Finances of the County Denied.

NORFOLK, VA., February 18th, 1895.

Editor NORFOLK VIRGINIAN:

DEAR SIR: Permit me to say a word with regard to certain charges made in the Sunday Pilot with reference to "Norfolk County's Rottenness." I do not wish to combat the assertion that the county affairs are suffering, more or less, from some degree of maladministration.
If there is the least degree of corruption existing, the writer is in sympathy with any movement to purify. The object of this communication is simply to deny that certain matters stated as facts are in the least degree true.

1st. It is without the semblance of truth that Norfolk county is the heaviest taxed county in the State.

2d. It is absolutely without foundation that Norfolk county is financially the poorest county in the State.

3d. If the writer of the article in question, who had nerve enough to say that Norfolk county warrants were only worth 25 cents on the $1, will present himself with all warrants of the county he can procure, the writer of this communication will pay 95 cents on the $1 for all such warrants, satisfied that he will make a profit of 5 cents on the $1, receiving par for the warrants.

4th. The writer must confess a previous ignorance, caused by an ill timed over confidence in section 3976, of Code of Virginia, which has led him to believe that it was the duty of the county judge to select the grand jury. The Pilot, however, seems to have enlightened us down the line by saying that different law obtains in the county, and intimates that the judge, by laxness, has allowed the Sheriff to wrest from him his prerogative. In the same breath, however, the Pilot passes sentence upon Norfolk county's Judge as to his administration in the most complimentary terms. May we be further enlightened as to this paradox?

5th. The writer begs again to confess that it is hard to understand the seeming contradiction the Pilot makes when it advertises Norfolk's surroundings as the haven for capitalists, and at the same time stating that Norfolk county is "the heaviest taxed and financially the poorest county in the Old Dominion," and that "its warrants are only worth 25 cents on the dollar." "TRUTH."

STREET CLEANING.

What Has Been Done to Remove the Snow.

The two weeks of ice and snow which this city has just experienced has blocked the streets and gutters, and the genial rays of old Sol are now doing what our efficient street cleaning department has failed to do to any appreciable extent.

During the past two days the force has been digging out the gutters, which had been blocked, in violation of law, with snow cleared from the sidewalks. This has allowed the melting snow to escape in some quarters, but in others a miniature lake system exists. At some crossings bridges formed of a single plank have been provided. Where they have not been so provided, if the pedestrian is a good swimmer or possesses the leaping power of a kangaroo he may get across.

Mayor Latrobe, of Baltimore, asked an appropriation of $40,000 to clean the streets of that city of snow, and although no such sum is needed here, nothing has been done to the driveway except what was accompanied by the electric company's sweeper.

Accumulates to Entertain.

The Arcanumites of this city are arranging for a grand complementary performance to be given after Easter, "for the good of the Order." The entertainment may be of a dramatic character and so well known is the histrionic talent possessed by members of the order in this city, that they will doubtless be well patronized.

Oleomargarine Argument.

Justice Burroughs held a special session of his court yesterday to hear argument upon the question of the constitutionality of the Virginia oleomargarine law. Mr. Sam. W.
Small represented the dairymen and Mr. Wm. H. White the oleomargarine people. The Justice reserved his decision.

The Keystone of the Arch

In the edifice of health is vigor, which means not merely muscular energy, but an active discharge of the various functions of the body, such as digestion, secretion of the bile, the action of the bowels, the circulation of the blood.
Nothing more actively and thoroughly contributes to the united performance of these functions than the renowned Tonic and Regulator, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The result of its use is a speedily gain in strength, together with the agreeable consciousness that the future of life is being strengthened, and that one is laying up a store of vitality against the unavoidable ravages which old age makes upon the system. The fortifying influence of the Bitters constitute it a reliable safeguard against malaria, rheumatism and other troubles. Appetite and sleep improve through its use, and it protects the system from the effects of cold and damp.

Children Cry for

AT FOOT OF MT. OSSISPEE

A Winter Item from a Summer Resort.

The News Comes from Frozen-in Centre Harbor. On the Shores of Ice-bound Lake Winnepesaukee.

The lake which the aboriginal Indians designated "The Smile of the Great Spirit," and which the poet Whittier has immortalized in song, now presents to the myriad lovers of its summer beauty, a forlorn and dreary waste of ice and snow, over which the biting winter winds from the bleak mountain tops hold high carnival.

It is a wonderful transformation from the summer lake known to tourists, and, as may well be believed, the chill and nipping air is prolific of those foes to mankind, kidney troubles, neuralgia and rheumatism. Naturally, therefore, a great desideratum in this locality, as well as elsewhere, is how to cure these painful curses of the human race.

One of the old residents here, Simon D. Glines, of Centre Harbor, N. H., a man known all over this section of this country, has solved the question to his satisfaction, and his advice and counsel have done no end of good to those who live in frosty climates.

"It is with the greatest pleasure," he says, "that I offer my testimony and advice for the good of others.
I had been troubled with kidney disease for many years. I was afflicted with la grippe which increased the kidney trouble.

"I was then attacked with rheumatism and suffered tortures. I tried many doctors and many remedies.
Everything failed to effect a cure.

"I am now entirely cured of both kidney trouble and rheumatism, and

MR. SIMON D. GLINES.
I want to tell the people that I owe my present good state of health entirely to Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy. After so many years of suffering it has completely cured me, and I would advise all afflicted as I was to give this splendid medicine a trial. I will freely answer all letters of inquiry."

That Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will cure rheumatism, neuralgia and kidney complaints, is beyond question. It has been proved again and again, and is always successful. Prominent people, as well as those in the humbler walks of life, are continually testifying to the remarkable value of this medicine; to such an extent, indeed, that physicians, druggists and the people everywhere have come to recognize Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, as an absolute specific for these diseases—the remedy that can always be depended upon to cure. The spring is the very best time to cure these affections, and this remedy should be taken now.

Wherever these diseases exist, this grand medicine should be used at once. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and what gives it greater value and the people greater confidence in it, is the fact that it is the prescription and discovery of a well-known physician, the successful specialist in nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 11th street, New York City, who can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

Coming to Norfolk.

Capt. Sam'l R. Borum, Secretary and Superintendent of the Chamber of Commerce, received a letter yesterday from Messrs. Wood & Buell, of Rapid City, South Dakota, stating that a number of people of that section, because of the recent publication of facts about Norfolk in the press, have under consideration a visit to Norfolk to inspect its advantages for settlement. They have written for additional matter as to Norfolk's growth. This is a straw which shows the attention Norfolk is attracting and indicating that the year will furnish proofs of many new comers to our city.

Death of Mr. Thomas Brown.

Mr. Thomas Brown, a well-known citizen, died at his home, No. 121 Cumberland street, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, aged 58 years.
The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at St.
Mary's Catholic Church.

Glove Contest.

The glove contest will take place at the Ariel Clubhouse Wednesday night between Duke and Wongo.
The Baltimore man was on the street yesterday and was in the pink of condition.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 19, 1895.
For Virginia: Fair; southwest winds.
For North Carolina: Fair; southwest winds.

MINIATURE ALMANAC—Sun rises, 6:46; sun sets, 5:44. High water, 5:18 and 6:10 a. m.; low water, 12:00 and 12:30 p. m.

AMUSEMENTS.

"THE POLICE PATROL."—This is the name of the attraction which will be at the Academy on Friday evening next. It will be an interesting performance, and especially to "the fire laddies."

"MONBARS."—Of Mr. Robert Mantell and "Monbars," which will be presented at the Academy on Thursday evening, the New York Sun says: "One of the strongest situations seen in any of the dramas nowadays is that witnessed in the first act of 'Monbars,' wherein Mon-bars canterizes the wound in his arm. This well-known and popular drama was given last evening by Robert Mantell and his excellent company at the Lee Avenue Academy of Music before a full house.
From the time of the situation referred to above until the close of the duel scene, in the last act, the interest of the audience was unabated." Sale of reserved seats will begin this morning. Prices as usual.

"NANCY."—Fanny Rice will be the magnetic attraction at the Academy to-morrow evening, when she will appear for the benefit of the Elks. Miss Rice is a comedienne and her talents are of that order which the public only finds in a woman of her character. In comedy of "Nancy" she has no superior. Secure your seats at once.

OYSTERMEN RESUME.

After an Ice Blockade, Warmer Weather Opens Up the Industry.

The rising mercury is greeted with gladness by everyone engaged in the oyster industry. The work of dredging came to a standstill during the blizzard. A leading dealer told a VIRGINIAN man yesterday that there had been almost an oyster famine here for the past week, that stock on hand was almost exhausted, but that the supply would now be largely increased.

Young People's Union.

The Young People's Union of Freemason Street Baptist Church held a "Christian Culture" meeting last evening. They were addressed by Rev. R. H. Bennett, assistant pastor of Granby Street M. E.
Church. Dr. Wharton read an original poem, "Clinging to the Rock," and several musical selections were rendered. The recitations were excellent and the meeting was quite an interesting and enjoyable affair.

PEABODY CELEBRATION.

Public School Pupils Do Honor to the Memory of the Great Philanthropist.

The pupils of the public schools of Norfolk united yesterday in doing honor to the memory of George Peabody, whose philanthropy gave the first great impetus to Southern public schools, the occasion being the anniversary of his birth.

In the Fenchurch street school the pupils of the Norfolk common schools rendered the programme prepared by the State Board of Education. The young people acquitted themselves with credit.

At the High School the same programme was rendered, with the addition of volunteer selections, all of which were very enjoyable. The music was excellent.

The Brambleton and Atlantic City Schools also celebrated.

Meeting Press Club.

The Norfolk and Portsmouth Press Club held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the office of Mr.
J. M. Marshall. The report of the committee on hall was received and the club closed with Mr. M. Umstadter for a room 24x24 over his store. The room will be nicely furnished and will be the home of the club. The club will meet again next Monday afternoon in their new quarters.
